FPHRA Annual Conference & Association Update

The Florida Public Human Resources Association (FPHRA) Executive Board wants to extend our best wishes to our members, sponsors, and partners and hopes your families, employees and communities are staying safe and well during these unprecedented times. Due to the current COVID-19 pandemic, FPHRA has decided to cancel the 84th Annual Training Conference scheduled for July 17 – July 22 at Grand Hyatt Tampa Bay. We regret the need to cancel; but the health and well-being of our members, sponsors and partners are always first and foremost in any actions taken by us.

Although we will not see you in July, we are in the process of creating a week- long FPHRA Virtual Learning Series, consisting of 12 online learning opportunities designed to provide education and credits towards the PHRP certification. More information will be shared and released soon.

The members who have received their PHRP Certification since last year's conference will be recognized at our 2021 conference awards luncheon next year. Please mark your calendars for our 2021 Conference July 24 – July 28 at the Wyndham Grand Resort Bonnet Creek in Orlando.

If you have already registered for the 2020 Conference, registration refunds will be processed within the next 30 days. If you do not receive your refund within 30 days, please contact our Treasurer, Evie Engelmeyer at Treasurer@fphra.org. FPHRA appreciates and values your continued support of our organization over the years and we look forward to many more years to come.

We are still here for you and will continue working hard to provide webinars and education opportunities to our members and plan for our 2021 Conference.

Always remember, we are stronger when working together rather than separately!

Our Sincerest Regards,

Florida Public Human Resources Association (FPHRA) Executive Board
